Thierry Chabanne

Australian Citizen, Perth WA
Thierry.chabanne@mac.com
(+61) 400 938 780

Executive summary

Innovative and driven technology executive and team leader with over 20 years international experience in management of technology operation, infrastructure, application development, digital and service delivery for Oil & Gas and Mining companies.

Led very large teams of IT professionals (80+ FTE) as well as transformation programs of value up to $12+m. Managed large technology budget ($35 + m) and drove organisational changes to deliver bottom line results. Improved safety through automation and increase service delivery through the use of innovation, technology and governance.

Education

- Master of Advanced Studies (Mast) Applied Marketing DESS
  IAE Aix Marseille, France

- Double Master of Science (MSc) Economics & marketing
  Clermont-Ferrand University, France

- Bachelor in Economics (BSC Hons)
  Clermont-Ferrand University, France

- Baccalaureat C, Majors: Math, Physics, Chemistry
  Clermont-Ferrand University, France

Experience

Manager Technology Operations & Governance
October 2017 – Present, Perth WA

Responsible for the operation and governance of Roy Hill's digital and technology assets, spanning IT and OT, smart machines, robotics and automation across the Company's sites and operations.

Leadership and management of large technology teams, infrastructure, OT communication, application support, Rail communication, service delivery and 24/7 Service Operation Centre to support the company operations, increase asset availability, improve efficiency and drive up production.

Lead the IT/OT integration within Mining, Processing and Rail Operations through the implementation and embedding of new technology across all IT/OT assets.

Senior Business Product Manager | Synergy
June 2016 – October 2017, Perth WA

Manage, develop the company business energy portfolio ($1 Billion in revenue) meeting commercial targets and KPIs. Develop and launch new products and services. Monitor commercial performance and implement marketing strategy to improve market share and customer retention.

Senior Manager - Technology & SI| Accenture
September 2010 – December 2016, Perth WA

Took leadership role within the Perth practice to develop business capability in system integration, operation technology, and project delivery within the oil & gas and Mining sector. Delivered and lead large strategic and transformational project helping C level executives achieve KPIs and operational objectives. Program management, team motivation and solution architecture for large IT integration and IT/OT projects.

MES Engineering Manager | Honeywell
July 2008 – September 2010, Perth WA

Led the Perth centre of excellence for MES applications to provide technical expertise and support to integration projects in the Oil & Gas and Mining. Drove operation excellence and technical innovation through the development, mentoring and management of a large application development and support team.

IM&T Manager | Woodside Energy NA
June 2006 – December 2007, Tripoli Libya

Structured and lead the IT service team supporting the company's operations in North Africa. Upgraded It Systems and implemented infrastructure standards to improved service delivery and efficiency. Developed local capability focusing the team on service integrity, operational efficiency, cost management and delivery.

IT Infrastructure Manager | Worleyparsons
January 2000 – January 2006

Joined Worley from Transfield-Worley to manage the existing IT systems and to build a new integrated IT infrastructure connecting all offices in alignment with the company strategic goals. Recruited, built and led the infrastructure team across the operational regions, coordinating support services and projects to standardize technology, process and systems. Improve business efficiency and knowledge sharing through technology and deliver cost savings.

Relevant experience

Relevant past experiences include:

- Team Leadership – Led, mentor and re-structure large technical teams (up to 80 FTE), focusing on building expertise, high work ethic and customer service to deliver business value. Empower team members to take ownership, develop their skills, take initiatives and become high performers.

- IT Infrastructure – Design build and managed large physical, virtual and cloud based IT infrastructure across multiple sites and countries, implementing various technology to deliver business outcomes aligned with company digital, mobile, cloud and cyber security strategy.

- Application Development – Led software development activities for clients in the Oil & Gas and Mining industry and coordinate teams across the globe to deliver functional design, application development and support.

- Project Management – Led large technical teams for the delivery of integration and transformation projects in the Oil & Gas and Mining industry, including estimating, resource planning and financial management.

- Strategy and innovation – Worked closely with senior executives to develop and implement technology strategy to support business objectives. Evaluate new technology to developed innovative solutions to solve business problems, provide competitive advantage and reduce cost.